Dear All,

We had a great time at Camp Jungai last week. Some of the favourite activities were bushwalking, bush tucker, painting boomerangs and generally being with friends. The cabins were a highlight too, some cabins definitely had more sleep than others!! Thanks to our wonderful parent helpers Cindy Butterworth, Andrew Santarossa and Chris Cummins, also thanks to our wonderful staff Lou Fillmore, Deb George, Susie Bennett and Lou Reed. I love the resilience and independence that your children showed!

Thanks also to those skippers and singers who turned up for the Light the Night event on Saturday, even though we only had a few they sounded and looked very professional. Special thanks to our tenor singers Rich Lane and Ric Stubbings who swelled the numbers and the sound!

Junior Fun Day was full of fun, sports and friends, thanks to parents who came and cheered us on.

The latest from Senior Camp is that they are learning lots, having fun and enjoying the experience.

On behalf of Deb George who is currently at Senior Camp.

Sal

Bethany

For showing Confidence, Persistence and Resilience when she spoke in front of the crowd at Light the Night!!

Calling for HELPERS!

Yea Primary School receives government funding but there are lots of additional materials that our kids need to support the schools various programs. To help raise some useful additional funds Yea Primary School cater at the Yea Races. In the past these events have raised upwards of $5000+ for the kids of Yea Primary and this year we need your help to do it again.

Who can help?
Any parents, family members, older siblings, friends etc. And we encourage the Grade 5/6 students to come and help as cashiers.

When?
There are three race meets at Yea over the 2015/16 Country Race season.
11am – 5pm (Anytime during the day you can help is appreciated)
Saturday 14 November; 19 December; 23 January

What’s involved??
There are three sections to the catering. Pre-Cooking, BBQ & Race Club.

>>>Pre-Cooking
If you are unable to help out on the day/s you can bake some scones, cook up some corned beef and prepare fruit and/or sandwich platters.

>>>BBQ
The Dads seem to love this one, but we need lots of helpers... Take a shift or work all day in the BBQ cooking up sausages and burgers for the masses.

>>>Race Club
Serve the Race Officials and jockeys their corned beef and salad meals and serve the ladies (and some gents) their Devonshire teas.

So what’s in it for me?
Free entry into the Races for the day/s you help out.
With busy lives, it can be hard to find time to help out, but the benefits of you giving some of your time to this event is enormous to your kids, and our school community.

For further information please contact: Deb Schickerling m. 0404459258

Please complete, tear off and return in your child’s notice pouch before 6 November.
