STUDENT ENGAGEMENT POLICY 2014

The school community of Yea PS have a shared legal, moral and ethical responsibility for the wellbeing and engagement of all students from Foundation to Grade 6

Our School
Yea Primary School is a school of 118 students situated approximately 100km north-east of Melbourne and 40 km east of Seymour. It provides education to children in the township of Yea and surrounding districts.
The school has adopted the core values of respect, integrity, persistence, collaboration, creativity and empathy. These values are referred to frequently and underpin student and staff relationships.
A teamwork approach to curriculum planning promotes consistency of delivery throughout the school. Reading Recovery and programs of individual assistance are provided to students experiencing difficulty with reading and writing. ILIP’s for all students who record a D or E on their previous report.
Art and Phys Ed are taken as specialist subject areas in 2014. The school provides literacy and numeracy support for students at risk. The upper three grades are divided into four groups for literacy.
The school’s guiding principles are to provide a high quality education through a curriculum that has breadth, depth and relevance. The school is strongly committed to empowering children by placing an emphasis on literacy and numeracy and catering to the special needs and abilities of each student. The Kathy Walker philosophy is being implemented from F-6.
Weekly lessons from Beijing are Skyped to every grade and a follow up session taken each Wednesday afternoon by a Mandarin speaking parent. Student welfare is addressed through the whole school implementation of Restorative Practice and a consistent discipline and welfare program throughout the school.
Students have the opportunity to learn drums, as well as participating in the Jump Rope for Heart Demonstration Skipping Team, Whole School Performance, Boite and Singing Group.
The physical environment of the school enhances the learning atmosphere. Students use an art room and multi-purpose room in addition to well-equipped classrooms. Access to computers is extensive. Each classroom has an Interactive Whiteboard. The screen interfaces with a computer and is highly interactive and engaging. It is a form of innovative technology that allows students the opportunity to operate the whiteboard as a touch sensitive large computer screen. It acts as a digital hub, with the internet, webcams, a digital camera, a scanner, DVD player and video all having the ability to be linked into the system. The school has spacious grounds for sport and recreation. Students have the option of participating in a wide variety of additional programs. Parents and community members are always made welcome in the school, with volunteers being a vital aspect of the daily life.

Rights & Responsibilities

As members of the Yea community, students, teachers, and families have certain Rights and Responsibilities within our community. It is our basic belief is that all Teachers have the right to teach, learn and be safe and all Students have the right to learn and feel safe both physically and emotionally. Students, Teachers and Parents all share equal Responsibility in acting in ways that uphold each of our Rights.

Rules & Consequence

Rules and Consequences are used to support our Rights & Responsibilities. This occurs via a staged response.

When a student is unable to use self-controlling thoughts to manage his/her emotions, and begins to act in a way that threatens our Rights and Responsibilities, then specific consequences and strategies are used to assist that student to take charge of him/her self.

Whole School Prevention Statement

Student Welfare is a shared responsibility between school, home and the community. The school will implement welfare support structures and programs which prioritise and address the identified needs of individual students and the school as a whole and that help implement the aims of the policy. Refer to: ‘Framework for Student Support Services 2002’.

The school will implement and maintain programs such as:

1. Primary Prevention-before there is a problem
   - Buddies
   - Student Awards
   - Breakfast program
   - SRC
   - Leadership programs
   - Committing to a whole school program of Restorative Practice and “circles” to develop resilience, social skills, conflict resolution and problem solving
   - Extra curricula activities: singing group, music lessons eg guitar, drumming
     eg Dancing – term 3, skipping
   - Personal Development Program (school nurse)–Grades 5/6
   - All Foundation student seen by a nurse
   - Implement Safety Survey for students
   - Mentors – providing support for ‘at risk’ children

   We map our school community to ascertain support needs and apply for grants as required

2. Early Intervention-when we start to think there may be a problem
   - Transition programs
   - Discussion with appropriate staff, parents and carers
Consultation with community agencies, chaplain, Hume Region, departmental personnel, SSSO
IIIP, PSG meetings
Behaviour Support Plans
Establish student support groups where necessary
Monitor and respond to protracted student absences
Partnership with TAC, Berry Street: Psychologist for psychological and academic assessment
Follow protocols for Mandatory Reporting/Child First
Mentors – providing support for ‘at risk’ children
Reading Recovery

3. Intervention—a definite problem
Referral to specialist support, family engagement officer, SSSO, parents and carers
CAHMS
Gardening Group
Regional Support
Restorative Practice: individual, small groups as appropriate
Counselling with support agencies

4. Restoring wellbeing—Post Intervention
Restorative Practice: individual, small groups as appropriate, parents and carers
Counselling with support agencies
Debriefing for staff, students and families

Our school will comply with all privacy issues in accordance with current legislation and departmental requirements – see separate Privacy policy.

Individual Behaviour Plans

From time to time, some students may require additional support due to issues such as changes in circumstances that impact in their emotional wellbeing. An Individual Learning Plan for Emotional Intelligence will be developed as required.

There is a whole school approach to reinforcing and supporting behavioural expectations and consequences. Consistency is then maintained for all students across the school.

Equity

Yea PS community is strongly committed to achieving Equity. Equity means we provide the resources that each individual needs to support emotional, social, behavioural and cognitive wellbeing and growth.
As we believe in treating everyone fairly we acknowledge that we cannot treat everyone the same and that from time to time everyone’s needs vary.

Expectations

The expectations of the schools of the Yea community are:
- That Equity occurs
- Student attendance is at or above 90%
- All people respect themselves, others and their environment
Bullying

At Yea PS it is the right and responsibility of anybody who is aware that bullying is occurring to report it to an appropriate adult. Reporting to the class teacher, duty teacher, Principal, or support staff will ensure action will be taken. Parents who become aware of bullying are encouraged to report this and can be assured it will be followed up. Victims will be supported through a Restorative Practice Approach. Confidentiality will at all times be respected.

A person is bullied when one or more other people expose them regularly and over a period of time to negative or harmful actions. Bullies are people who deliberately set out to intimidate, exclude, threaten and/or hurt others repeatedly. Bullying is a clear form of harassment. It may take many forms including:

- Physical bullying - includes fighting, pushing, shoving, punching, kicking, aggressive play fights or any unwanted touching that is used to harm, hurt or intimidate. It also includes any deliberate property damage.
- Verbal bullying – includes name calling, putting people down (both to their face and behind their back), intimidating noises and teasing people about their race, religion, appearance, family or friends.
- Visual bullying – offensive notes or electronic material either hand written or computer generated, damaging other people’s possessions, giving people looks and non-verbal signs which are used to intimidate them.
- Exclusion – deliberately leaving people out of activities or treating them as if they don’t exist, spreading rumours, deliberately making social invitations in front of them but not to them.
- Extortion- using stand-over tactics to control someone else’s behaviour eg Give up possessions, buy food or drink, or do the work for them, picking on others, using threats.
- Sexual bullying – touching or brushing past in a sexual manner, sexually oriented jokes, drawing or writing about someone’s body, unwanted advances of a sexual nature, using rude names and asking questions about others personal lives.
- Cyber bullying – Bullying that is carried out through an internet service, such as email, chat room, blog or instant messaging. It can also include bullying through mobile phone technologies such as short messaging service (SMS). Examples of cyber bullying include teasing, spreading rumours online, ending unwanted messages, or defamation.

Yea Primary School will adopt a four-phase approach to bullying.

A Primary Prevention
• Professional development for staff relating to bullying, harassment and proven counter measures.
• Community awareness and input relating to bullying, its characteristics and the school’s programs and response.
• To provide programs that promote resilience, life and social skills, assertiveness, conflict resolution and problem solving.
• A bullying survey and yard survey will be administered and acted upon twice annually.
• School and class norms will be established and be embodied in daily practice.
• ‘Bounceback’ implemented across the school.
• Each classroom teacher to clarify at the start of each year the school policy on bullying.
• The curriculum to include anti-bullying messages and strategies eg: ‘The Friendly Schools’ and ‘No Blame Approach to Bullying’ programs.
• Student Representative Council, peer support delegates, staff and students to promote the philosophy of ‘No Put Downs’.
• Electives and structured activities available to students at lunch breaks.

B. Early Intervention
• Promote children and staff reporting bullying incidents involving themselves or others.
• Classroom teachers and principal on a regular basis reminding students and staff to report incidents of bullying.
• Parents encouraged to contact school if they become aware of a problem.
• Public recognition and reward for positive behaviour and resolution of problems.

C. Intervention
• Once identified each bully, victim and witnesses will be spoken with, and all incidents or allegations of bullying will be fully investigated and documented.
• Students and staff identified by others as bullies will be informed of allegations.
• Both bullies and victims will be offered counselling and support.
• If student bullying, including cyber bullying, persists parents will be contacted. If staff bullying persists the Principal will commence formal disciplinary action.

D. Post Violation
• Consequences implemented will be consistent with the school’s Behaviour Management Program.

Procedures for Suspension

This brochure addresses issues around suspension from school and is for parents/carers of suspended students. It covers:

- the Student Engagement Policy
- shared expectations for student engagement, attendance and behaviour
- how schools can support students before and after a suspension.

It also lists contacts for further advice and support.

Student Engagement Policy

The Student Engagement Policy aims to ensure a safe and inclusive school environment for everyone. It also outlines the school community's expectations for student engagement, attendance and behaviour.

Your school’s Student Engagement Policy should:

- create a positive, fair and respectful culture
- build a safe and supportive environment
- encourage positive and respectful relationships that value diversity
- encourage student participation and student voice
- proactively engage parents/carers.

Shared expectations

The whole school community must be involved in developing shared expectations for the participation and behaviour of staff, students and their parents/carers. Part of this is ensuring students respect themselves, their peers and their teachers and are well behaved. When this does not happen, a staged response will be used by the school to support improved behaviour.

A staged response

The student support group is an important part of prevention and early intervention strategies for students with learning and behaviour issues. It should involve you, your child (if appropriate), the school principal (or their delegate), your child's main classroom teacher or year level coordinator and any professionals who have been supporting you or your child. You can also bring along a friend or family member, as long as they are not acting for a fee or reward.

The student support group works out what your child’s learning, social, emotional, behavioural and environmental needs are to ensure they get the best support and resources available. If required, the student support group can refer you or your child to community support agencies for specialist interventions.
In order to suspend a student, a principal must ensure that a range of strategies have been implemented to meet the educational, social and emotional needs of your child and that these strategies have not helped your child demonstrate more positive behaviour.

A student support group is then set up to explain to you and your child that a suspension is being considered. All participants in the meeting should try to begin a process of effective communication and identify issues that are of concern to you, your child or the school.

The student support group then develops a range of strategies to support you and your child in addressing these areas of concern.

Reasons for suspension

Students can be suspended if, while at school, travelling to or from school or during an out-of-school activity (including travel there and back), they:

(a) threaten or constitute a danger to the health, safety or wellbeing of any person.
(b) commit an act of significant violence against a person or cause significant damage to or destruction of property; are knowingly involved in the theft of property.
(c) possess, use, or deliberately assist another person to use prohibited drugs or substances.
(d) fail to comply with any reasonable and clearly communicated instruction of a principal, teacher or other staff member.
(e) consistently interfere with the wellbeing, safety or educational opportunities of any other student.
(f) consistently vilify, defame, degrade or humiliate another person based on age, breastfeeding, gender identity, impairment; industrial activity; lawful sexual activity; marital status; parental status or status as a carer; physical features; political beliefs or activity; pregnancy; race; religious belief or activity; sexual orientation; personal association (whether as a relative or otherwise) with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes.

The maximum suspension is five school days in a row and no more than 15 school days in a year, unless permission is granted by the Department of Education and Early Childhood Development's regional director for a longer period of suspension. Suspensions cannot continue over the school holiday period into the following term.
When a principal decides on a suspension, a student support group meeting is set up to:
- explain to you and your child why, when and where the suspension will happen (e.g., in-school or out of school)
- provide contact details for additional support services
- develop, in conjunction with you, your child (if appropriate) and your child's teacher/year level coordinator, a Student Absence Learning Plan outlining school work to be done during the suspension.

If your child is suspended, the school must provide you and your child with a Notice of Suspension and a copy of this brochure before the suspension begins.

If the suspension is for five consecutive days, the principal must also provide you with details of the post-suspension student support group meeting.

A student can be suspended immediately if their behaviour warrants immediate suspension or if it is putting the health, safety and wellbeing of themselves, staff or other students at significant risk.

In the case of immediate suspension, you will be told without delay and a student support group will be held within 48 hours to ensure appropriate support for your child is in place. The school must provide you and your child with a Notice of Suspension and a copy of this brochure at the student support group meeting.

If the suspension is for five consecutive days, you and your child must attend a post-suspension student support group on the day your child returns to school to:
- review the Student Absence Learning Plan and the school work completed during suspension
- develop a Return to School Plan
- develop strategies within and outside of the school to meet your child’s educational, social and emotional needs
- discuss the ongoing responsibilities of you, your child, the school and any other professional at the meeting.

It is best to raise any concerns you have about your child’s suspension at the start of the student support group meeting. If, at the end of this meeting, you feel your complaint has not been adequately addressed, then you should speak to the school principal.

Student Engagement Policy

Procedures for Expulsion

This brochure addresses issues around expulsion from school and is for parents/carers of expelled students. It covers:
- the Student Engagement Policy
- shared expectations for student engagement, attendance and behaviour
- how schools can support students before and after an expulsion
It also lists contacts for further advice and support.

Student Engagement Policy

The Student Engagement Policy aims to ensure a safe and inclusive school environment for everyone. It also outlines your school community’s expectations for student engagement, attendance and behaviour.

Your school’s Student Engagement Policy should:
- create a positive, fair and respectful culture
- build a safe and supportive environment
- encourage positive and respectful relationships that value diversity
- encourage student participation and student voice
- proactively engage parents/carers.

Shared expectations

The whole school community must be involved in developing shared expectations for the participation and behaviour of staff, students and their parents/carers. Part of this is ensuring students respect themselves, their peers and their teachers and are well behaved. When this does not happen, a staged response will be used by the school to support improved behaviour.

A staged response

The student support group is an important part of prevention and early intervention strategies for students with learning and behaviour issues. It should involve you, your child (if appropriate), the school principal (or their delegate), your child’s main classroom teacher or year level coordinator and any professionals who have been supporting you or your child. You can also bring along a friend or family member, as long as they are not acting for a fee or reward.

The student support group works out what your child’s learning, social, emotional, behavioural and environmental needs are to ensure they get the best support and resources available. If required, the student support group can refer you or your child to community support agencies for specialist interventions in partnership with the student support group.
What has to happen before expulsion?

In order to expel a student, a principal must ensure that a range of strategies have been implemented to meet the educational, social and emotional needs of your child and that these strategies have not helped your child demonstrate more positive behaviour.

A student support group is then set up to explain to you and your child that an expulsion is being considered. All participants in the meeting should try to begin a process of effective communication and identify issues that are of concern to you, your child or the school.

When can expulsion occur?

Students can be expelled if, while at school, travelling to or from school or during any out-of-school activity (including travel there and back), they:
(a) threaten or constitute a danger to the health, safety or wellbeing of any person
(b) commit an act of significant violence against a person or cause significant damage to or destruction of property; are knowingly involved in the theft of property
(c) possess, use, or deliberately assist another person to use prohibited drugs or substances
(d) fail to comply with any reasonable and clearly communicated instruction of a principal, teacher or other staff member
(e) consistently interfere with the wellbeing, safety or educational opportunities of any other student
(f) consistently vilify, defame, degrade or humiliate another person based on age, breastfeeding, gender identity, impairment, industrial activity, lawful sexual activity, marital status, parental status or status as a carer; physical features; political belief or activity; pregnancy; race; religious belief or activity; sexual orientation; personal association (whether as a relative or otherwise) with a person who is identified by reference to any of the above attributes.

AND

The student’s behaviour is of such magnitude that it is the only option left after balancing the need for the student’s continued education against the health, safety and wellbeing of other students and staff.

Expulsion procedures

Prior to expulsion, a student support group is convened to discuss the expulsion and allow you and your child an opportunity to be heard. At this meeting a Notice of Expulsion is given to you and your child, along with this brochure and a copy of the Expulsion Appeal procedure. The Department of Education and Early Childhood Development’s regional director (or nominee) will also attend the student support group.

For students in Out of Home Care, the principal must ensure the meeting is attended by the DHS case manager and the student’s primary carer or person the student normally lives with.
Pathways and transitions

The student support group must identify your child's most suitable future educational, training and/or employment options and work together to ensure that there are good transition arrangements in place. Following the student support group, if the principal determines that enrolment at another school or a registered training organization is the best option for your child then the whole student support group must work towards this.

What happens after an expulsion?

The principal and regional director (or nominee) are responsible for making sure that your child is enrolled in another school or registered training organization or that an appropriate employment opportunity is identified. The principal and the regional director (or nominee) must then schedule a meeting with any new school or registered training organization, and ensure all information relevant to your child is forwarded in accordance with the Information Privacy Act 2000.

If you would like to appeal your child’s expulsion, you must do so within 30 school days from the start of the expulsion.

How can I appeal an expulsion?

Decision to expel can only be appealed by the student or their parents/carers on the following grounds:

* the school did not follow the expulsion process
* grounds for expulsion are considered unfair
* other extenuating circumstances

The appeal must be lodged in writing with the principal within 10 school days of receiving the Notice of Expulsion.

Regional director (or nominee) forms expulsion review panel and nominates panel members.

Regional director's nominee liaises with panel members and takes every reasonable step to schedule the meeting at the most suitable time for all panel members. The person who filed the appeal attends the meeting to present their case.

Principal provides a copy of the Notice of Expulsion, a copy of the Expulsion Report and a copy of the Expulsion Appeal from the student or their parents/carers to panel members.

Expulsion review panel completes panel report and forwards it to regional director within 24 hours of the meeting's conclusion. Copies sent to the regional director, the person who submitted the Expulsion Appeal, the school council and the principal.

Regional director (or nominee) must verbally notify the person who lodged the appeal of its outcome within 24 hours of the decision. The outcome must also be provided in writing, including a copy of the Expulsion Review Report within five school days of the decision.

If the expulsion appeal panel overturns the principal's decision to expel the student, the student must be readmitted to school immediately. The principal must work with the student, their parents/carers and the student's teacher(s) to develop a Return to School Plan for the student. The principal must also ensure that the record of expulsion is removed from the student's permanent record. Once this has occurred, the principal must notify the student and their parents/carers of this in writing.

During the appeal process, the expelling school remains responsible for the student's educational provision, and must provide the student with appropriate school work for the duration of the appeal. This must be monitored by the regional director's student support group nominee. The school should develop a Student Absence Learning Plan for the student to support their ongoing engagement with learning.
